Plot Summary

In this fantasy story, Mit is a magician with a pointed hat and magic wand. He performs on a hilltop for his friends, Mat and Nan, who wonder what Mit will pull out next from his hat. Mit surprises himself when he produces a seed which sprouts into a weed and then becomes a giant vine. The vine entangles Mit, and the animals wonder whether Mit will be able to save himself with his magic wand. Mit is triumphant and stands on the hilltop in his hat with wand in hand.

"See the man on the hill, Nan.
Who is it?"

"It is not a man on the hill.
It is Mit with a hat and that."

"A hat is in this hand.
What is in that hand?"

“What will we see, Mat?”

"See the hat in this hand.
What is in it?"

"A wet fish is in the hat.
The hat is in this hand.
What is in that hand?"

"Is it a fan?

Is it a shell?

No, it is not."

"It is a seed, Nan.

See the seed in the hat."

"What will we see?"

"Is it the seed, Mat?

No, the seed is a weed?"

"It is a fat weed.
It fills the hat."

"The weed is on Mit.

The weed runs on the hill."

Will Mit win?

"Mit did well.

He is the man on the hill."
